Call for Papers
2019 International Conference on Business، Big Data، and Decision Sciences
Conference Venue: Tokyo University of Science، Tokyo (Japan)
Conference Date: 22-24 August 2019.

Dear Colleagues،

This is ICBBD local committee chair – Dr. Jianming Shi (Tokyo University of Science) and local secretariat – Dr. Fion Yang (Waseda University). We are pleased to announce that the 2019 International Conference on Business، Big Data، and Decision Sciences (ICBBD 2019) will take place at Fujimi Building، Kagurazaka Campus، Tokyo University of Science on August 22-24، 2019. Last year at Chulalongkorn University، Bangkok، Thailand، the conference received over 350 submissions and slightly over 200 delegates from 31 countries participated. Accordingly، worldwide participants in 2019 are expected to reach 350 persons from over 30 countries. All submissions to the conference will go through an anonymous review processes by at least two independent peers. In the digital age، how to effectively use big data to provide businesses with highly competitive strategies to make best decisions is definitely a vital challenge for all researchers and industry managers.

Therefore، during the three-day conference، all participants will have plenty of opportunities for exchanging ideas، findings and the latest research results، engaging in many academic and industry events، and meeting peers from different countries. We believe that participants can share their viewpoints from different perspectives and be exposed to a cross-domain communicating and learning atmosphere through this interdisciplinary joint conference. For detailed information regarding ICBBD which has been activated to http://icbbd2019.globalconf.org/ 2019، please browse the official website the public since December 1، 2018.

Abstract/Paper Submission Due Date: March 31، 2019
Sign Up and Submit Now!

Notably، we will send all conference proceedings to ISI office to be possibly indexed in the Conference Proceedings Citation Index (CPCI). Please note that ISI office welcomes all submissions but there is no guarantee of inclusion in CPCI. Inclusion in CPCI is selective and competitive، while not all-inclusive.

Looking forward to seeing you in Tokyo soon،

Sincerely،

Adrian E. Coronado Mondragon، Ph.D.
