PUBLISH HELP

A breakthrough Free TIIKM project to make your research publication possible Preliminary Reviews for Your Full Paper with the world-class publication "Steering Committee" prior to the conference

One of the major issues faced by novice researchers/authors in the present set is the lack of perspectives to improve writing for academic publications. As a "PUBLISHHelp" is introduced by TIIKM to help authors develop their full papers before the conference. Once the request is been made, a steering committee member will be assigned to provide the author with developmental comments for the improvement of the full paper. Our main goal is to assist our conference participants to keep one step ahead to improve their valuable research papers
